- When used correctly, lithium-ion rechargeable batteries provide a safe and dependable source of portable power. However, if they are misused or abused, this may result in leakage, burns, fire, or explosion, causing personal injury or damage to other devices.
- Misusing or incorrectly connecting your power bank may cause electric shock to users and damage equipment.
- Keep your power bank dry and away from moisture, water, and corrosive materials.
- Do not expose your power bank to moisture, water, rain, or snow.
- Keep your power bank away from heat sources, including open flames, radiators, stoves, ovens, and any other devices that produce heat.
- Do not expose to fire or excessive temperature. Do not expose to heat above 212°F (100°C) or incinerate.
- In the unlikely event of leakage or explosion use sand or a chemical fire extinguisher.
- Your power bank may become warm under extended high power operation. Do not cover, wrap, or otherwise restrict air flow around the power bank during operation.

- Do not drop or subject to strong impacts. Do not operate your power bank if it has received a sharp blow, or has otherwise been damaged in any way.
- Do not puncture, crush, or subject to mechanical shock.
