Israel's Expiration Date

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SroPrk7TFpQ>

The title of the message is “Israel’s Expiration Date.” Get ready, let’s start with the prayer. Father, I thank You for this amazing group of people. I thank You that You have carefully handpicked the people to be here today or to watch it right now. And now I ask that You will open the eyes of our hearts to behold the wonders of Your Word. We do not want to hear the opinion of men, but the Word of God. So we ask that You will speak to us, encourage us. And we pray that at the end of this conference, after the amazing messages we’ve heard, no one will walk out of this place the same way as he walked in. We thank You and we bless You. And we ask this in the name of the Word of God, in the name of the King of kings and the Lord of lords, in the name of the only One, the only Name by which man can be healed or saved, in the name of Yeshua, our Messiah. And all of God’s people say, Amen, amen.

So, so many people all across the media and around the world wish that Israel did not exist. I honestly don’t understand why. Because if you look back at history, you know that it’s not going to work. You know, you don’t have to be a rocket scientist to know that they lose, we win. And by the way, it’s not because we’re good. Never, ever was it because we are good. It has never been about us. We should never, ever take the credit for any of this. Because I can tell you one thing, on October 6th of 2023, we were a proud, boastful, and very divided group of people in Israel. We did not care about the signs of what is about to come. We underestimated our enemy, overestimated our intelligence and abilities, and we were proven wrong on that morning in ways that it’ll take years, decades for us to understand. But I can tell you, by the grace of God, two years later, we are stronger today than we've ever been since May 14, 1948. [Audience: Applause] Never in the history of the modern state of Israel, we were active in Gaza, Judea and Samaria. We were active in southern Lebanon, southern Syria, and we defeated Iran and the Houthis. Never. You have to understand, the Arab world, and I'm expert in that part of the world, when it comes to how they view us, what they write about us. I hope you guys follow me on Telegram to understand that my information on Telegram is mostly taken from—not from English-speaking sites and from English-speaking sources. I'm talking about Farsi and Arabic channels that are telling me and giving me what they think. They understand that everything changed. And that's why they want us to disappear, because we are a bone in the throat of the Jihadi-global movement.

But they want us to disappear, and then they start spreading lies, and everyone that hates everything about this world jumps on this wagon. And now, this whole movement of "Free Palestine," its... I mean, I look at them, I feel sorry for them because so many of them are the most uneducated people I've ever seen. I mean, you come to people who are chanting "From the river to the sea," they don't even know which river or what sea! You ask them, "Okay, so tell us about Palestine. When was it established?" They don't know. "Who was the first Palestinian president?" They don't know. "When was it established?" They don't know. "What is the meaning of Palestine?" They don't know. How can you chant, how can you go out in the street without knowing what you're chanting for, what it is all about? It's because they have been brainwashed. Because it's not about Palestine. It's never been about Palestine. Because they don't even know what Palestine is so it cannot be about that. It's people who want to pull down and destroy everything that this world stands for right now. This country (USA) is the only country that they can do that. And you know why? Because this country enables them to do that. You've got democracy, free speech. Your constitution allows all of that to happen. And in the name of freedom, they want that freedom to be taken from you. And in the name of democracy, they don't want your democracy. And in the name of Christian Western values, they want to destroy Christianity and the West. And in the name of "I live in America," they want to destroy America. Hum.

So, they think that if Israel was gone, the world will be better. And they say that because every possible bad thing that ever happened in the world is now associated to Israel. Charlie, the most fierce defender of Israel was assassinated. Who did it? The Jews. [Sarcasm] There is a drought in Iran. Who did it? The Jews. [Sarcasm] They literally say to their own people that the Jews caused the clouds not to reach Iran and drop rain.

So they believe that the world was better before Israel and will be way better after Israel. So let's check what the state of the world before Israel was. And I can tell you what, within three chapters, we already dropped the ball big time. Adam and Eve were cast out of the Garden of Eden because of the first sin, as we all know. And the Lord ²⁴ ... placed cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.", lest not only now they corrupted themselves, but they live forever like that. And you would think that after they were banished from the Garden of Eden, they would understand the wrongdoing. You would think that from now on they'll change their ways. Everything is going to be great. No, the first murder happened in the next chapter. And by the way, murder, that is what is in the Ten Commandments. Thou shall not murder. In the Hebrew, Lo Tirtzach, "Thou shall not commit a murder." I know in your Bible it says, "Thou shall not kill." Nuh-uh. That's not the Hebrew. And we got to the point that in Genesis 6, all the way, look, six chapters into the Creation and we're already... ⁵ Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man... and the Jews are not there yet. All right? Remember, there are no Jews in the world as of this point. And ⁵ ...the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.” (Genesis 6:5) Every, only, continually. Not a good thing came across their mind. Wow. And the saddest verse in the entire Bible, Genesis 6:6, “And the LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.” So don’t tell me that Israel is the problem of this world. God regretted for this man way before.

In fact, you would think that after the flood, everything will be great. Well, not exactly. (Genesis 11:1-9) “¹ Now the whole earth had one language and one speech.” The first group of globalists existed then. “² And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there.” ³ Then they said to one another, ‘Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly.’ They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar.” ⁴ And they said, ‘Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the heavens;...’” That’s not Dubai, by the way. That’s a different story. And “⁴ ... ‘let us make a name for ourselves,...’” It was all about ourselves. “Let’s, in a way, replace God. It’s us. We are gods. That’s who we are. That’s what we need to do. It’s about a name to ourselves. Give no regard to the Creator. It’s all about us. We are gods.” “⁴ ... ‘lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth.’” ⁵ But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built.” It’s so pathetic. I’m thinking about the Creator of heavens and earth, who created the whole universe. And He’s looking at this tiny little planet, and He’s looking further, and He sees a group of—they’re like ants, so small, and they want to replace Him. And “⁶ And the LORD said, ‘Indeed the people are one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; now...’” ⁷ ... ‘Let Us go down and there confuse their language,...’” You see the Trinity in action, by the way. “Let Us.” You see that God is, in the plural case, in the Hebrew, Elohim, is plural. It’s not singular. Elohim, everything that ends with “-im” is always plural. ⁷ ... ‘let Us go down and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another’s speech.’ ⁸ So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city. ⁹ Therefore its name is called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth;...” “Babel,” Babylon comes from “Babel,” it comes from confusion. There is nothing good about Babylon. There is nothing good about the Babylonian captivity, or the Babylonian rule, or the Babylonian deities, or the Babylonian, I guess, culture. Make no mistake, up until today we suffer from a Babylonian lifestyle and way of thinking. And it’s confusing. And it’s about confusion. And God is not the author of confusion, make no mistake. It’s from someone else who wants to kill, steal, and destroy.

So Israel only entered the world via Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob after sin entered the world. So thankfully we’re (Jews) not at least blamed for the first sin. And Israel was not chosen from the onset of Creation. It would be through Abraham and his descendants that God would make Himself known to the world. Think about that. God wants to make Himself known to the world. How many of you are interested in Exploring Ezekiel? Just so you know, the book of Ezekiel ends up almost in every chapter with a word “that they may know that I am God.” Every chapter. If there is a theme to that book, that’s it.

So, we now see that there was a time and a way that God chose Israel. And it wasn’t until after the flood and the Tower of Babel that God called out a nation for Himself. And make sure you understand it was not a conditional covenant. The election of Israel has never been a conditional one. “Wait a minute. I thought that He said to them that if they are behaving themselves, He will love them. And if they don’t, then He hates them.” No. No, no, no, no, no, no. The Abrahamic Covenant which began in Genesis 12, later on in 15 was manifested and 17 was already materialized. It says to Abraham, He said, “Get out of your country, from your family...”

There is no, by the way, in God's ways there is no democracy here. "Abraham, 'How about...?'" No. What is it here? That's what I always say to people I don't like. "Get out!" Never mind. He said, (Genesis 12:1–3) "1 ... 'Get out of your country, from your family and from your father's house, to a...'" Say that, [Audience: "land"] to a land "1 ... 'a land that I will show you.'" I promise you Abraham never had Israel in his mind. I promise you that. And I also promise you that if he would have had pictures of different destinations, let's say in a nice brochure, he would have never picked Israel. And He said, "2 'I will make you a great nation...'" Say nation. [Audiences: "Nation"] Nation. One. "2 ... 'nation; I will bless you...'" First, He says, "It'll be a nation." And then He says, "2 ... 'I will bless you and I will make your name great...'" By the way, our name is great, not for the great things, but if you really think about it, we're all the way, every day in the news. Tiny little— we're the only country in the world that on the map, we don't have enough land mass for the name to be written on it. [Audience: Laughter] Tiny dot on the map gets more condemnation in the United Nations than all the world combined five times. And He said, "2 ... 'I will make your name great; and you shall be a blessing. 3 I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you; and in you...'" in that nation, "3 ... 'all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'"

So God is going to take Abraham, from him He will bring out a nation that will be in a land that God is bringing him to. And then He says, "That land that belongs to that nation will be now added to the blessing that the nation is going to be to the rest of the world." The whole decree that was given to him here was seed, land, and blessing. And that is why the enemy is always trying to separate it so, "Oh, they're not the real people. Oh, their land is not really theirs. Oh, they're not really a blessing to the world." It's always like that, because in reality God has something else in His mind. You see, the Lord promised the patriarch people, land, and blessing. And has He kept

His promise? Of course He did. I am a living proof that Abraham's people still exist, that the nation of Israel is still alive. I'm the first generation in my family that was back to be born in Jerusalem after 2,000 years. I'm of the tribe of Judah, born in Jerusalem a little bit more than 50 years ago. [Audience: Laughter] And I can tell you God is not done with our people.

And you can ask the Assyrians, the Babylonians, the Romans, and the Third Reich, and you can even ask Hamas whether God blesses those who bless Israel or curses those who curse Israel. Actually, coming to think about it, I don't think you can ask them. They're all gone. The destruction of Judah, right as the first temple was destroyed, was a glitch, a major glitch in the relationship between God and Israel. But it was also not a deal breaker that some claim it is. How do I know that? Women, how many of you ever went to a conference that followed the verse, "And I know the plans that I have for you?" How many of you went to a conference like...? Hello, you see? Show me your hands, please. There you go. "For I know the plans that I have for you." Future, hope, not to destroy. And you know who wrote it? To which prophet did God say these words? Jeremiah. When? It was right before He punished Israel to go out for 70 years in Babylon. Right before He sent them to Babylon, He says, "I know the plans I have for you. And you, I'm about to give you the good word. The good word is after those 70 years, you'll be back. The good word is I have a future and hope for you, not to destroy you. That's the good word." So that amazing disobedience of the people of Israel that caused God to punish them for not keeping the sabbatical year for 490 years, staying a year in diaspora for every seven years that they had. Think about that. Even that did not stop Him from saying, "But we have a deal, and I am faithful to My promises."

The contract cannot be broken because there was no obedience clause included in Abraham's part of the covenant. If you remember, in Genesis 15 (v 9-17), "So He said to him, 'Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram,...'"

And you know what happened eventually? We all know that Abraham fell asleep. The whole initiation of the promise happened when Abraham was asleep. He didn't have to sign any paper. He didn't have to agree even. God decreed. It was amazing.

But then as He took them out of Egypt, led by Moses, Moshe. Say "Moshe." That's his name. Moses, Moshe! Moshe, because she took him out of the water. Masha is to bring him out of the water. There's a meaning to the Hebrew names. That's why Daniel and his friends were taking their names from them. Because there is a meaning and it's all about God, always. "So what is the meaning of your name?" Okay, the meaning of my name goes all the way to Isaiah 17, which is the uppermost branch of the tree. All right? Are we okay with that? Good. "I thought you're not a Jew. You have an Arabic name." No. In Arabic, Amir is a prince. In Hebrew, it's the uppermost branch of the tree. I'm a Jew. But I take advantage of my looks and my name. [Audience: Laughter] And whenever I'm in Arab countries and I speak Arabic, I let them think that I'm one of them. And I can't believe I just said it live on camera. [Audience: More laughter]

And I want you to know, Pastor Mark and Pastor Barry both talked about the new date of the rapture. So just so you know, on October 7th, I will be in the air flying to Asia. I will be not available. And it's not because of the rapture. So if you don't see anything on Telegram on October 7th, don't jump to the conclusion that that South African was right. I'll be offline because I'm flying to see my family. We are all going to have a nice vacation in Asia, because I'm 30 years married. [Audience: A "roar" of approval and applause] Okay, so, and I'm flying via an Arab country. So I just said what—Never mind.

Okay, so then He brought them out of Egypt and then came the Mosaic Covenant. That's the second covenant. But that covenant, unlike any of the others, was conditional. And it is extremely important that we always keep this distinction in mind. There is nothing in this transaction that was made with Moses that will or can affect God's Word to the patriarchs. You understand that? Do you? Thank you. With the other covenants, it was purely promises made, promises kept. And that is the nature of our God. But the Mosaic covenant, however, was based on "If you do this, then I will do that." To this covenant, God attached the promise of a wonderful blessing. You have to win it. But to receive it, the people of Israel would have to abide by a code of rules. And if the nation chose not to follow those rules, a harsh set of consequences would result. So it's amazing. In Exodus 24 (v7-8), "7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read in the hearing of the people. And they said,..." it wasn't like, "I impose it on you." He said, and look what they answered, "7 'All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient.'" So, they promised the Lord to be obedient. There's a promise here that He asked them. "8 And Moses..." look how amazing it is, "8 ...took the blood, sprinkled it on the people, and said, 'This is the blood of the covenant which the LORD has made with you according to all these words.'" Rings familiar when we talk about communion later on regarding the cup of the New Covenant? Thank you. Some of you are like [Universally known head gesture: Yes]. And by the way, there was an amazing time of fellowship with God and men immediately after this covenant during which Moses, Aaron, and Aaron's sons and 70 elders of Israel saw, they saw the God of Israel. In verses 9 to 10, you see the amazing, amazing occurrence of an amazing revelation of the throne room of God while they were up there on the mountain. And it's a horrible thing if you really think about it. When they're there in the throne room of God, God reveals Himself to them and down there below something else happened. What an amazing thing. What a deterioration that led eventually from the golden calf all the way to the Babylonians laying siege to Jerusalem, and to the fact that the times of the Gentiles thus have begun.

But there was another covenant, the Davidic Covenant. A covenant that is one of the other two that is left that are unconditional and amazing and spectacular. The first was given to King David through the prophet Nathan, and the other was given through Jesus. This is the 2 Samuel 7:12, “¹² ‘When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.’” You can clearly see the layout of the entire Davidic Covenant right there. And there is no sign of “if you do this, I will do that” in this covenant. No. Thousands died due to David’s sins throughout the history of his reign. But yet God knew David was someone that He called “A man after His own heart.” He said that to him in 1 Samuel 13:14 and in Acts 13:22. And it’s because of that deep dedication that God saw that He blessed David with this covenant despite his weakness. We must never ever lose sight of how perfect the mercies and forgiveness of God is. And if you feel like David in his lowest times, remember, you can always change your way. You can always get back to God, confess your sins, ask that God will forgive you. Let Him be the king of your life, the leader. We have today a way, we have today a mediator. We have today a wonderful path into the Holy of Holies where we can find mercies. And that is through Jesus. And that’s what God wants. He wants to forgive, and He wants to have a new way with all of us.

But the children of Israel broke that promise. And guess what? Then God gave them a new testament or a new covenant which is another one that is unconditional. Amazing. (Jeremiah 31:31–32) “³¹ ‘Behold,...’” the prophet Jeremiah is speaking to the nation of Israel minutes before they leave to the 70 years in Diaspora and look what he says to them, “³¹ ... ‘the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will...’” It’s going to be a future covenant; He says, “³¹ ... ‘I will make a new covenant...’” New Testament, “³¹ ... ‘with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah— ³² not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, though I was a husband to them, says the LORD.” So you see, God says that conditional covenant that they broke—And by the way, I have a question for a trivia question. Was it even possible to fulfill the law? Absolutely not. And you know that because Israel failed. “Oh, they failed.” All of us would have failed. Show me one person, the only person that could ever, ever fulfill the entire Law was who? [Audiences: “Jesus”] Exactly.

So the giving of the Law was a setting of a standard that humans could not—What was it, if not what? A nanny to show you that you need a Savior. And when the Savior arrives, you’re with Him, you’re no longer with the nanny. The Law is like a shadow of things to come. You see the shadow here? Look, on the stage. Now what person in his right mind will come and shake this hand and not mine? When the substance is here, you go straight to the substance. And Jeremiah says, “³⁵ Thus says the LORD...” to Israel a minute before they leave, “³⁵ Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun for a light by day, the ordinances of the moon and the stars for a light by night, who disturbs the sea, and its waves roar (The LORD of hosts is His name): ³⁶ ‘If those ordinances depart from before Me, says the LORD, then the seed of Israel shall also cease from being a nation before Me forever.’ ³⁷ Thus says the LORD: ‘If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel...’” (Jeremiah 31:35–36) You see, basically God says it’s impossible to fulfill the Law. They failed, they were punished, and I have a good word for them. They’ll be back. And if anyone doubts it, as long as the sun, the moon and the stars are there, Israel will be a nation before Me. Period. [Audience: Applause]

Now, let’s make no mistake. Not for a single point and moment I will ever suggest that Israel’s story with God was all good. Of course not. You should thank God that we failed so you can learn from our mistakes. It's a long history of ups and downs. And there were a lot of ups, by the way, especially in the wilderness. You know, He just took them out of Egypt; for the first time they are a nation. Up until then they were a scattered group of tribes that they didn't even know their God. They needed an introduction to Him. Even Moses didn't know. "So, who am I going to tell them who you are? Give me Your name." It was amazing. I can already see those Jewish haters saying, "They don't even know the name of their God." Moses didn't even know His name. Hello? "Excuse me? [Head gesture: Looking up] What is Your name, so I know what to tell them?"

And in the wilderness experience I know there was an amazing experience because Jeremiah 2:2–3 God says, "²... 'I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your betrothal, when you went after Me in the wilderness, in a land not sown. ³Israel was holiness to the LORD, the firstfruits of His increase. All that devour him will offend; disaster will come upon them,' says the LORD." Now that's not a love chapter. It's just the beginning of a chapter that speaks of judgment later on. But it tells you that God remembers the good days. "Yeah, but that's God. I only remember the bad things they did to Him." Shut up. [Audience: Laughter] Who cares what you think? I care what He thinks. That's the God I serve. And as far as I—I'm sorry, did I offend you when I said—I didn't mean that. All I want to say is that who cares? You need to look at God and His plans, His Word, His promises. That's what we need to look at. We don't need to look at what Tucker Carlson thinks about me. I don't care! [Audience: Applause]

The allegiance to the Law of God on Mount Sinai as you see in Exodus and later on the contributing to the tabernacles, as you can see in Exodus 35, they were very ashamed of what they did. And then when the tent of meeting or the tabernacle was set outside of the camp, they were very embarrassed. (Exodus 35:29) "²⁹ The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to the LORD, all the men and women whose hearts were willing to bring material for all kinds of work which the LORD, by the hand of Moses, had commanded to be done.”

And they entered into the land and Joshua told them (Joshua 24:14-17), “¹⁴ ‘Now therefore, fear the LORD, serve Him in sincerity and in truth, and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River and in Egypt. Serve the Lord! ¹⁵ And if it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.’” And what did the people answer? “¹⁶ So the people answered and said: ‘Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; ¹⁷ for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, who did those great signs in our sight,...’” Isn’t that amazing? I sit with my family every year around the table, and I remind my children what the Lord did to our nation as He took us out of Egypt. God actually designed all of His calendar to begin on the first month is the Exodus. That’s His calendar. His calendar is not Christmas or Easter. His calendar starts with Passover. That night, that’s when He began showing the whole world, and especially to His own people, who He is and what He’s about to do. And the fact that people associate Rosh Hashanah, which by the way is the wrong name, it’s not Rosh Hashanah, the head of the year. It’s the first day of the seventh month. Use your brains. The real Rosh Hashanah, the real first month is the month of Passover. All right? It’s called Feast of Trumpets. And the reason why people confuse that with the rapture is because of the trumpet. Every time, or whenever they see a peace agreement in the Middle East, he’s the Antichrist. It’s an automatic mode. Always. “He’s the Antichrist.” “Trump is the Antichrist.” What? I’ll give you a tip, okay? First of all, if you’re here to see the Antichrist, you were left behind. Second, the only thing you need to look at in a peace deal to know that it's the Antichrist is if it includes a temple of the Jews on the Temple Mount. If it's not part of the peace deal, it's not about the Antichrist. Remember, it's very easy. They contributed also in the temple. They had an amazing time in the temple. People from all over the world came. The queen of Sheba, everybody came to behold this amazing thing standing there and how God honored it, and that amazing cloud was resting upon it. And the altar and the amazing rising smoke from the altar of incense that would rise up. Wow!

And even when the nation was sinful, then there was spiritual reformation done by some of the kings, as we can see in 2 Kings 23. But then we cannot avoid the downs, the idolatry of the golden calf, as we see in Exodus 32. And the unbelief and the refusal to enter the land; they were afraid. They missed the other food and the gods of the Egyptians, as in Deuteronomy 1. The pagan worship while they were in the land of Baal and Asherah, the god of rain and the goddess of fertility. As in Judges 10, and we can also know that they rejected God as their king and they wanted a king flesh and blood. You can ask Samuel, he'll tell you all about that in 1 Samuel 8. They had a very wicked leadership to some degree, some of the times, as we see in 1 Kings 16 with Ahab. And I remember the first time I read Isaiah; I almost had a heart attack. I mean, this is the first book of the prophet that I read as a non-believer. I open Isaiah and I'm not an Ethiopian eunuch. I have four kids. [Audience: Laughter] But listen, he says, watch this. Look what He said (Isaiah 1:12–15), “¹² ‘When you come to appear before Me, who has required this from your hand, to trample My courts? ¹³ Bring no more futile sacrifices; incense is an abomination to Me. The New Moons, the Sabbaths, and the calling of assemblies— I cannot endure iniquity and the sacred meeting. ¹⁴ Your New Moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates;...”” I was like, “What? All the festivals that we celebrate and the head of every month and all the Sabbaths, You hate it, You told us to do it. You prescribed them to us.” Well, God said, “I hate what you made it. I hate what you turn it into. I don’t need all of this if your heart is not in the right place. I do not need sacrifice. I want...” What? “... obedience.” ¹⁴ ... ‘they are a trouble to Me, I am weary of bearing them. ¹⁵ When you spread out your hands, I will hide My eyes from you; even though you make many prayers...’”

You know, a lot of Christians are like that today. And they will, when the rapture happens, they will like, “What? But we did this in Your name. We did that in Your name.” He will say, “I do not know you. I don’t know you.” Lots of religious people call themselves Christians. I don’t get it. “Oh yeah, I was born a Christian.” What? It’s the only faith on the surface of planet Earth in the history of human beings that you cannot be born into. “Why?” Because you have to be born again to be born into it. “Oh, I thought it says Christian on my birth certificate.” It’s wrong. It should say sinner. Not a single person in the history was born a Christian. “Wait a minute!” Yes. You cannot be born a Christian. You can be born a Jew. You can be born a Muslim. You can be born Catholic. You can be born Orthodox. You can be born Hindu if you want. You cannot be born a Christian. You can’t. It’s impossible. And Jesus told that to a Jewish leader right there when he came to Him at night and admitted that He must be sent from God.

So what is Israel’s current state? All in all, unbelief. I’m telling you, right now, you go to Tel Aviv right now, the Antichrist will win the elections if he ran for elections over there right now. It’s different when you go to other places. But I can tell you one thing, over all, the nation of Israel is not as a nation not yet ready to receive the Messiah. As a nation, individuals do. I’m a proof. As 2 Corinthians chapter 3 says, when one turns, the Jewish people, when one turns to Christ, swoosh! [Gesture: Hand in front of face swiping upward] That veil is taken away. But as a nation, they’re still in unbelief. But I will tell you after October 7th, I’ve been watching an amazing exodus from hedonism, materialism, and secularism towards belief in God. Now, they still don't know Jesus. They don't know the Messiah. But first you need to believe in God to believe that God has a Son. Okay? So it's a great step forward. But I am watching all of them, looking at things around them and they're saying to themselves, "This makes no sense." We were supposed to be wiped out right now. I don't know if you know what was supposed to happen according to the original plan of the Iranians. October 7th was a mistake, was a glitch. I don't know if you know that. Hamas jumped the gun too early. The plan was not that Hamas will start a war. The plan was that simultaneously, at the same moment, rockets will be flying from Iran, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Gaza, and attacks will be from Judea and Samaria, from within Israel, and rockets and drones will fly from Yemen. And at the same time! What they planned was a hundredfold worse than what happened in reality. But you know what? Because the Iranians are Shi'a, and Hamas is Muslim Brotherhood/Sunni, Hamas is saying, "Why should I be just an element in the Shi'a plan to destroy the Jews when I can actually lead the charges and I can be the initiator of their demise?" And then they jumped their gun, and on October 7th, they said, "We will do it, and we are sure that the rest will join us." And they did not. Hezbollah woke up only the day later to start shooting some rockets. But it wasn't what the original plan was.

So the Jewish people understand a great miracle happened to us. And then when we invaded into Lebanon, if you only knew what we found there, ready along our border, they were ready for something ten times more than October 7th. And what we destroyed in Iran was horrific. So Israel is still in disbelief. And God said, "¹⁹ 'I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation, I will move you to anger...'" in Romans 10:19–21, "¹⁹... 'by a foolish nation. ²⁰ But Isaiah is very bold and says: 'I was found by those who did not seek Me; I was made manifest to those who did not ask for Me.' ²¹ But to Israel he says: 'All day long I have stretched out

My hands to a disobedient and contrary people.” So, God says, “While you are disobeying Me, I am going to manifest Myself to others.” And Peter acknowledged that. Remember, Peter was the first one to go to the first Gentile family. Where? In Caesarea. Whom? An Italian family of all things. [Laughter] Think about it. Italian family seeing a Jew walking into—it’s the beginning of a joke. And Peter saw with his very eyes that there is no partiality in God. All of them were saved on the spot. He says, “Oh, Lord, what’s going on here?” And then he walked all the way up to Jerusalem memorizing everything that happened to him from the moment he was praying on the rooftop of Simon the Tanner’s house in Jaffa all the way to the time he was brought to Cornelius in Caesarea. And he then showed up before a Jewish church. And all of them are sitting right there. “We heard you entered into an Italian house. Bologna is not kosher.” [Audience: Laughter] And he had to tell them everything that happened. And they were, “Wow.” Jews 2,000 years ago were amazed that non-Jews were saved.

And then Paul became the messenger to the Gentiles. Started going all across Asia Minor and Greece. And then he came back and he reported. And then the church in Jerusalem started receiving so many letters. People who said, “Paul was here. He told us great things. He even told us the Law of the Jews, ‘Oy vey.’” And then they said, “But we are not under the Law. Yay!” And then they said, “But two days after he left, someone else showed up from your very church. And he said that we actually,” all the men [indicates cutting, circumcision] — This was emergency letters. A lot was at stake here. [Audience: Laughter] And the church had to meet there in Jerusalem and decide, “What are we going to do with those Gentiles? Are they to keep the Law or not?” And Peter, of all people, stood up and he said, “Of all people here, I’m the one that God chose.” He started as a little Jewish. “All of you, I’m the first one. Hello. He asked me to go to the Gentiles. Let me tell you something. Why are we going to ask them to keep something that we cannot keep and our fathers cannot keep? We...” and look what he said, “...We should believe just like they do.” Peter, the apostle, was provoked to jealousy by an Italian family of bologna-eating Gentiles. A lot of people are asking me, “Amir, what do you do when you travel all around the world and they serve you stuff?” I said, “Look, for me, it’s an opportunity to show the world how great is our God and how much of a miracle making God is.” Because when the— How do you call that pig? Bacon? Okay. I think you’re ashamed of the word pig. So you have ham and bacon. All of those names. Just call it pig. It’s a pig. But never mind. So they bring the pig with all the scrambled eggs. And all I need to do is take my fingers, dip them in the water and sprinkle on it and say, “You’re chicken, you’re chicken, you’re chicken.” [Audience: Laughter] And lo and behold, it turned into chicken –every time! And I’m like, “Whoa! I need to tell it to all the Gentiles.” And so, here I am.

But there is a word of warning to the church also. Don’t boast. You have been grafted into the olive tree of Israel. Do not boast as Romans 11:17-24. And by the way, I don’t have time to read all of it, but we will give you all the slides. You can read it at home and see for yourself all of that. But just remember one thing. It may seem as though Israel’s history is riddled with nothing but unbelief. But while that might be true a little bit, let me remind you of these things. First, your story also involves with unbelief. Hello? Second, who are those people in the “Hall of Faith” in Hebrews 11? Are they Gentiles? For the most part, the author is revealing that the model of faith looks like mostly by referencing to Jewish people at that time. Hello? Most of the disciples were Jewish people. Who wrote most of the Bible if not Jewish people? So it’s not like the Jewish people are all in unbelief and it’s all unbelief, unbelief. No. Guys, you believe, you heard about Him because of the obedience of Jewish people to go and take the gospel to the whole world.

And Israel’s future according to the Bible is very, very clear. First of all, replacement theology began already in the first century. I know that because Paul started with, in Romans 11:1,

“I say then, has God cast away His people?” And what is the answer? “...Certainly not!”

Paul understands that to be a Jew is a matter of your seed. It’s a physical thing. And he said, by the way, never ever a Gentile became a Jew, or a Jew became a Gentile. You understand that? You don’t need to be Jewish. “I want to be Jewish.” We don’t want you to be Jewish. I don’t even understand why you want to be Jewish. I’m asking you, what could make you better than what you are right now by being a Jew? You know, God calls you now a holy nation. You’re priests. Most of the Jews are not priests. So if you want to be a Jew, you’re downgrading yourself. Because most of them are not priests. You are already a priest. You are also a holy nation. You also have a passport with identity... your ID is heavenly citizenship. Who cares if you’re a Jew or not? You can produce a card that says, “Ambassador.” I’m an ambassador of Christ. You can have on the other side, “Future governor.” Because we will reign and rule with Him in the millennial kingdom. Why do you need to be— it’s not going to be like, “I’m a Jewish ambassador.” Or “I will be a Jewish governor.” No! Stop that nonsense. The Law never ever saved a single person, ever. If it was so, there was no need for another and better sacrifice.

And Israel’s miraculous survival is amazing. If you think that so far it was miraculous and it has been miraculous, no one can explain how we survived. America, by the way, plays a significant role in the survival of Israel in the last 50 years. So, you don’t need to be a Jew, you need to be an American. Think about that. You belong to a nation that God handpicked to save His nation. How amazing it is! Did you know Richard Nixon, a lot of people like to bash him, Richard Nixon got a phone call in the middle of the Yom Kippur War from Golda Meir. She said, “Mr. President,” 3 AM, she woke him up, “...if America is not going to help Israel in the next 24 hours, we won’t exist anymore.” He said, “Golda, I grew up listening to Bible stories. My mom told me one time when she read Bible stories, she said, ‘Richard, I want you to know that if ever you come to a point where you can help saving the Jewish people, you must do so.” He said, “Golda, maybe for the first time I understand why I became President of the United States of America.” And he hung up the phone, he called the Department of Defense then, now it’s War, yay, and then, listen, and he said, he ordered the largest airlift of armaments since World War II. His State Department said, “Don’t transfer all what we have.” And he says, “Why?” “Transfer only some, otherwise they will attack us.” He said, “They will attack us if we transfer 3 or 25. How many do we have, 25? Send all of them. We will be attacked anyway for helping them.” He ordered the transfer of all the most sophisticated weapons systems that America could share with us at that time. And it was an amazing thing. And that was then.

I don’t need to tell you what happened last June with you sending a few B2s and dropping a few gifts for early Christmas. But a big war is coming. A big war is coming. A war that I pray I will not be here to see. I really pray because I know what’s coming. But I will tell you, I know the end of the story. And I know who is going to win. And I know that after we win, Ezekiel says, he summed up the whole description of Ezekiel 38 by, “Then they shall know that I am the Lord.” Once again, God wins everything for Israel so the nations will know that He is God. Always, always it wasn’t just about Israel. What He did with Israel, for Israel, and through Israel is so the world will see and know that He is God.

And Israel is going to go through the tribulation. Unfortunately, I’m saying that, but you have to understand that the tribulation is not for the church. The tribulation is the 70th week of Daniel. And just as the first 69 weeks were for the people of Daniel and for the holy city of Jerusalem, even the 70th one will be for the people and for the city of Jerusalem. And we know, we know, we know that unfortunately two-thirds of Israel will perish during the tribulation. As Zechariah 13:8–9 says, “⁸... ‘That two-thirds in it shall be cut off and die, but one-third shall be left in it: ⁹ I will bring the one-third through the fire, will refine them as silver is refined, and test them as gold is tested....” And we know that, that the people that will not accept the Antichrist as God, because he will declare himself as God, where? In the temple. Where? In Jerusalem. That’s why there has to be a temple in Jerusalem where the Antichrist is reigning. Jesus said, “When you see that happen, when the abomination, the desolation spoken of by the prophet Daniel, run! Don’t even go and pack things.” And Revelation 12 tells us that women that gave birth to the Messiah, not Mary, but the nation that gave birth to the Messiah, received the place in the wilderness prepared for them for 1,260 days. You know, I know a group of Christians from the early 60s, I don’t know them from the early 60s, I did not live then. I was born somewhere in the 90s, I think. I think. [Audience: Laughter] But they were there, and they went to Petra every year and smuggled Bibles in Hebrew and they buried them in the caves of Petra. Because they know that the day will come and the Jewish people that will run from the Antichrist will hide in the caves of Petra. And they wanted them to have access to the Word of God to know exactly what is going to come. But then Israel will turn from chosen to choosing. And the remnant will accept Yeshua right upon His arrival. Zechariah 12:10 says, “¹⁰ ‘And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him...” They look at God and they mourn for Jesus. Jesus is God. Thank you, Pastor Mark. Where are you? Somewhere. He just told me about a Korean guy that is doing his thesis right now on that very thing, on that very portion. And it’s amazing because then they will mourn for him as one mourns for his only son and grieve for him as one grieves for a firstborn. And in Romans (11:25–26) says, “²⁵ For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion,...” Paul says to all the anti-Semites, “I don’t want you to think that you are wise. You are wise in your own opinion.” There is a mystery when the time of the Gentiles will come in and all... everything that was supposed to happen with the Gentiles is coming to an end. When the kingdom of the Gentiles over the world will come to an end, when the Messiah is coming back to establish His kingdom, he says, then “²⁶ ... all Israel will be saved,...”

The only nation on planet Earth that has a promise of national salvation, Israel will be restored as the chief nation, as Isaiah chapter 2 says and as Zechariah chapter 8 says and as Micah chapter 4 says. And even then, if you remember in Acts 1:6, when Jesus was asked by His disciples, the Bible says, they asked Him. So, “⁶ ... when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, ‘Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?’” They know it’s coming. They know it’s a matter of the future. The kingdom for Israel will be restored. It’s a matter of time. Jesus didn’t say, “Oh no, Israel is no longer My people.” He said something completely different, “That’s not what you need to think about right now at this moment. Now you need to go and preach the gospel.” But they knew the day is coming.

And Jesus will reign over the world and David will be the king over Israel in the millennial kingdom. as Isaiah chapter 9 says, Ezekiel 37 says. And then the millennial kingdom will come to an end. And by the way, the millennial kingdom, there will be Jews and Gentiles. And the Jews will still be Jews, and they will serve in the temple and they will be in Israel. And you need to get used to it. There will be a lot of airplanes flying to Israel, Air Messiah, Messiah Airways, Jesus Airlines, you know. Because the Bible says all the nations will come to celebrate in Jerusalem, the Feast of Tabernacles every year and any nation that will not come, the blessing will not be upon them. Wow! Can you imagine? You should already invest in a hotel in Jerusalem. I’m telling you. Just stay away from the area of the Temple Mount because when Jesus and us are coming back, there will be an earthquake, and everything will be destroyed in that area. So do it somewhere else.

But Israel has an expiration date. When is it? Remember, He said in Jeremiah 31:36, “³⁶‘If those ordinances depart from before Me, says the LORD, then the seed of Israel shall also cease from being a nation before Me...’” Which means that there is a day that is coming when the criteria are never going to be Jews or Gentiles. There will be a place that is going to be prepared in heaven and will come. There will be new heavens and new earth. There will be the New Jerusalem. And it’s all going to be whether your name is written in the book of? [Audience: “Life”] Just three days ago, the Jewish people fasted. Every Yom Kippur. What is their desire? Do you know? So our name will be written in the book of life. Every year. Now, we don’t have to do that every year. We don’t have to “Every year, let’s fast so our name will be...” Our name is written in the book of Life. It’s called the Lamb’s book of life. But they, because they don’t believe, for them, their sins are not long—they’re just covered for one year. They need to come back again and ask for forgiveness. Once again, they need to ask for their name to be written in the book of life. Amazing. And this year, we’ve never seen anything like that. Over 120,000 people showed up in the last night before Yom Kippur at the Western Wall. Including all the released hostages and their families. All of them were there, shouting and asking and pleading and crying for forgiveness. Wow! One day, they’ll do it. And guess what? They’ll be at the Western Wall, millions! And He will come, and He will descend, and then “... they will look at Me whom they pierced.” And He’s coming. And guess who He’s coming with? Listen, when Jesus comes back, you don’t want to see His face. You want to see His back. You’re going to be riding behind Him.

And I will tell you this, the New Jerusalem will be amazing. But the one thing you need to know about your New Jerusalem, (Revelation 21:22-24) “²²...I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. ²³The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God illuminated it. The Lamb is...” its Menorah, “...its light.” In other words, when the New Jerusalem is coming, no more moon, no more stars, no more sun. Which is then the expiration date of Israel. Remember? Only when the moon is not there and the sun is not there and the stars are not there. Isn't that amazing? And even then, when there's no more Israel, God is telling the anti-Semites that are outside in the outer area, in the lake of fire, He is doing that to them. And He's naming all the 12 gates after the 12 tribes of Israel. Israel ceases to exist in the New Jerusalem. And you know why? God chose Israel following His reboot of the world after the flood. There will be no longer a need for this flagship nation once sin has been removed from the picture and we've received our, not glorified bodies, but also our eternal home.

So, from Creation to Abraham, there is no Israel. From Abraham to Jesus, it's predominantly all about Israel in the Bible. From Jesus to the end of the millennial kingdom, we see Israel and the church. And in eternity, it's only those whose name is written in the Lamb's book of life. And there will be no more Behold Israel in the New Jerusalem. So I'm just telling you that if you are applying for a job with us, you will be unemployed in the New Jerusalem. Now

I'm sure we will be there, but no more to Behold Israel. There's no more need to Behold Israel. No more, that's it. So if you want to spend eternity in the presence of the Lord, whether Jew or Gentile, make sure your name is in the Lamb's book of life.

Father, we thank You for Your Word, promises, for who You are. We thank You for the fact that You are so faithful. Your thoughts are not our thoughts. And the fact that people are so critical of the nation of Israel, not understanding Your plans for them, and Your unconditional love and covenant with them, only tells us how much we need to tell them to read their Bibles and how much we need to give the Word to this world. We thank You for what You do with Israel. And we thank You that the way You treat Israel is an insurance policy for every Christian to know that You are God that is faithful to every promise that He gave to all of us as well. We thank You and we bless You in the matchless name of the Holy One of Israel. We pray and all of God's people say, Amen. Thank you. Thank you.
