

Hydration That Goes Beyond Water

QUINTON® TOTUM SPORT FOR PERFORMANCE, ENDURANCE, AND RECOVERY

From Dr. Shade, Quicksilver Scientific® Founder

"Just like Original Quinton®, Totum Sport is an all-natural seawater mineral supplement but geared toward the athlete. Informed Sport Certified for guaranteed quality and purity – this seawater is special – harvested from a protected phytoplankton bloom off the coast of Spain and France, it's cold microfiltered to ensure all 78 minerals and trace elements are preserved and nothing else, making it the ultimate clean, remineralization and hydration formula your active body deserves."

Product Overview & Key Benefits

Quinton Totum Sport is an all-natural seawater electrolyte supplement created to support your endurance & recovery. Utilizing the same Marine Therapy as discovered by French biologist and physiologist René Quinton in 1897, Totum Sport is packed with up to 78 naturally occurring minerals and trace elements, as a hypertonic solution for electrolyte replenishment supporting hydration, mitochondrial function, performance, and post-exercise recovery—without sugars, additives, or synthetic ingredients.

How It Works

Quinton® Totum Sport provides a naturally balanced matrix of minerals and trace elements delivered from the sea to support fluid balance, electrolyte replenishment, and cellular energy. These minerals help rehydrate, maintain mitochondrial efficiency, reduce oxidative stress and regulate lactic buildup during intense exercise. Delivered as a liquid hypertonic solution, Totum Sport helps the body rehydrate smarter and recover stronger. Quicksilver Scientific has been Quinton's trusted North American distributor since 2017.

About Quinton®

Quinton's Marine Therapy is a cell nutrition technique which aims to improve people's overall health. Seawater - produced using an original protocol - is an exclusive and unique product created by the French biologist and physiologist René Quinton in 1897. The therapeutic capabilities of Marine Therapy are based on the fact that the quality of organic water is essential to maintain the hydromineral balance of our cells.
